DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on January 09, 2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 47 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The phrase "wherein each of said cross-links lies flush on one side with said first and second side members" is inaccurate, vague and indefinite. It is not clear how the cross-links lies flush on one side with said first and second side members if it is already asymmetrically bisecting (to divide into two usually un-equal parts) said first and second side members.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

6. Claims 41 and 44-47 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cooper (US 6,173,836) in view of the admitted prior art of record in the instant specification as shown in figures 1-6 embodiments. Cooper discloses a length of continuously connected fastener stock comprising: a first and second side members

(107 & 109) wherein said first and second side members are generally circularly shaped with a pair of flattened surfaces in transverse cross-section (see figures 6c & 6b); and a plurality of cross-links (105) interconnecting said first and second side members;

wherein said first side member is shaped to extend transversely beyond said cross-links with an actuate surface, and each of said plurality of cross-links asymmetrically bisecting said first and second side members. Cooper does not appear to disclose the cross-links having a flat surface and an actuate surface. As admitted by applicant cross-links that have both a flat surface and an arcuate surface are well known in the art.

(Figures 1-6 embodiment of the instant application). Therefore, with respect to the shape of the cross-links it would have been an obvious matter of design choice to modify the shape of the cross-links in view of the teaching of the admitted prior art of record in the instant specification and since such a modification would have involved a mere change in shape a component. A change in shape is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art. In re Dailey, 357 F.2d 669, 149 USPQ 47 (CCPA 1966).

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 19, 21-22, 24, 32 and 37 allowed.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 41 and 44-47 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
